

Understanding Cow Body Language

Happy/relaxed cow body language

Relaxed

Lying/ruminating

Neutral head position

Neutral tail position

Clues to look for:

- Tail down/relaxed when standing.
- Eyes relaxed or half closed.
- Ears relaxed or held backwards.
- Lying comfortably and ruminating.
- Engaging in natural cow behaviours such as grazing, chewing grass, relaxing, and spending time with other cows.

Excited/playful cow body language

Excited/interested

Playful tail position

Excited or galloping
tail position

Clues to look for:

- Tail raised when playing, wagging, or held away from body.
- Ears back or asymmetric.
- Calves engaging in natural play behaviours such as jumping, kicking, galloping, and running.

Angry/unhappy cow body language

Bellowing

Unhappy

Cold/ill/scared
tail position

Clues to look for:

- Eyes wide, lots of white showing.
- Standing with back arched, head low.
- Ears alert, facing towards approaching threat.
- Bellowing (could mean hunger or pain).
- Tail hanging straight or tucked under body between legs.
- Cow standing separate from the rest of the herd.