

Content / Relaxed / Happy

A dog that is displaying content or relaxed body language isn't feeling stressed, anxious or aggressive.

But that doesn't mean they want to be patted!

Always ask the dog's guardian if it's okay to say hello, before asking the dog.

What to look for:

- Head: held high but not tense or fixed.
- Ears: alert and possibly up (depending on the dog's breed).
- Eyes: soft and relaxed (little/no pupil dilation).
- Mouth: relaxed, may be slightly open.
- Tail: in a relaxed position, may wag.
- Body Posture: evenly balanced, soft and wiggly. Not leaning forward or back.
